His blood flowed down, bones could be counted,
Tongue cleaved to jaws, heart melted like wax.

From lake of fire, He did save me.
God’s beloved Son, by God forsaken.
Lonely, He tasted death for me.

Bloody and scarred, within and without.
The precious veil is rent for me.
A living way to God He leads me.

That I may fore'er know and follow You.
And You bring me into Your household, too.

The Father's house has appeared!
'Tis my family, and your family.
Let's together love and care for it.
Father, help us to love even more,
To accomplish Your beautiful will,
Ever to be rooted in this house.
Heart to heart we journey home.

In God's Household

In God's household lived many saints.
How excellent they are!
United in love and honesty,
Never split. (never split)
For the love of Christ has melted me,
That I know what love should be,
Lost in brothers' and sisters'
Loving streams. (loving streams)
Let's join hands to walk the journey,
Building up ourselves in love;
Stand up in unity, satisfy Him.

Lovely and thoughtful are His designs,
Showing His love tender and real.

The e- vi-dence of Your love to us You show.

2. Lord, I treasure the years of copious journey,
Walking with You through floods, flames and valleys.
Your words of grace have nourished, enlivened my soul,
Make my faith strong and boastful to the end.
Your loving hand leads me to go through all distress.
My tears and laughter in Your sight are precious.
Lord, I give thanks for Your favour and tenderness,
Your presence with me is my sweetest sweetness.

3. When I think of the task ahead yet to be done,
Lord, You know well the path I have to tread.
Thousands of souls, hopeless and lost, are waiting.
May Your great love make me firmly go forth.
Lord, hold my hand tight as I run my course ahead,
In lands of joy, o'er mountains and swift rivers.
Bright days or dark, our hearts are drawn closely as one,
Rejoice till the day I see You face to face.

4. Lord, I am Yours, and You desire and long for me.
O my Beloved, let's go out to the field.
Early let's rise, go out to the vineyard and see
If the vine's budd'd, its blossoms are open.
There I will give, there I will give my love to You.
See, at our gates are pleasant fruits, new and old.
O my Beloved, I have laid up all these for You.
Lord, may Your heart be satisfied in this household.
*O Lord, do come, take me to be with You always.
Hand in hand we shall sing and dance forevermore.*

Walk With The Lord

D 4/4 The Path Of Suffering And Glory

5 · 6 5 3 2 1 | i – 6 0

My Lord came down to earth for me,

6 | 5 3 3 1 | 2 – – 0 |

Was in a manger born.

5 · 6 5 3 2 1 | i – 6 0 |

Unique, yet He was re - ject - ed,

6 5 3 1 3 2 | 1 – – 0 |

Repelled and misunderstood.

i – 7 6 | 5 – 3 0 |

Lonely He walked on,

6 5 3 1 | 2 – – 0 |

Fully followed God.

5 · 6 5 3 2 1 | i – 6 0 |

No place even to lay His head,

6 5 3 1 3 2 | 1 – – 0 ‖

He's opposed, defamed and scorned.

2. What a brilliant light my Lord shone
In His short earthly span.
The Father's glory to man showed,
He is fairer than all men.
Acquainted with grief, tempted in all things,
He can comfort and understand.
He wipes away all my tears.

3. Oh how precious my Lord chose me
For this task of glory!
His gift and calling not revoked,
He will keep me to the end.
Through the dark valley, my heart shall not fear.
His faithfulness reaches to the skies.
And He keeps truth forever.

4. He has opened His heart to me –
He has revealed His will.
Though the foes gather to storm me,
My warm dwelling place is He.
I have a sure goal; for life I'll press on.
Faithful to the heav'nly vision,
Follow gladly, no retreat!

5. What a joy to know my Lord's will,
And to stay close to Him.
The way may be full of hardship,
Yet I live abundantly!
Is there the 'Red Sea', mud land or high hills?
He is the First, He is the Last;
He will accomplish His will.

6. Deepest pain He suffered for me,
Can I be with no wounds?
Follow to the end steadfastly,
Look down on all trials and sneers.
Suff'rings brief and light, gladly bear for Him.
Let these make up sweet memories,
And eternal glory.

7. South wind, north wind, spring or winter,
I'll live with my Lord still.
World's bitterness, joy in God's house –
All are love designs of His.
Sufferings will pass, glory yet will last!
He makes all things work together,
Moulds me into His likeness.
