Song 2:14-17

|: 5 6 | 5 5 5 3 3 1 | 5̣ — —
1. O' my dove, in the clefts of the rock,
2. My be-loved is mine and I am his.

1 7 | 6̣ · 7 1 1 3 1 | 2 — —
1. In the se - cret places of the cliff,
2. My be - loved pas - tures his flock;

5 6 | 5 · 5 5 5 3 · 1 | 5̣ — —
1. Let me see your face and hear your voice;
2. He feeds his flock a - mong the li - lies.

1 7 | 6̣ 1 7 3 2 1 2 | 1 — — — |
1. Let me see your face, let me hear your voice,
2. My be-loved, un - til the cool of the day,

5 5 5 3 3 4 | 5 — —
1. For your voice is sweet to me
2. When the sha - dows flee a - way,

6 7 | 1̇ · 1̇ 7 6 | 3 5 · 5
1. And your face is love - ly.
2. Turn my be - loved, turn my be - loved,

5 6 | 5 5 3 3 1 | 5̣ — —
1. Catch the fox - es for us, for us,
2. Like a ga-zelle, like a young stag,

3 1 | 2 2 2 5 3 2 1 2 | 1 — —

1. The lit - tle fox - es that spoil the vine-yards,

2. On the mountains, the mountains of Be - ther,

3 1 | 2 2 2 5 3 2 1 2 | 1 — — :‖

1. For our vineyards are in blossom, in blos-som.

3 1 | 2 2 2 2 2 3 4 | 5 — — ‖

2. A young stag on the mountains of Be - ther.