Dm 4/4

Song 5:9 - 6:1

3 2 | 3 6 6 3 | 4 3 4 —
O' most beau - ti - ful a - mong wo-men,

2 1 | 2 5 5 2 | 3 — 3 2 1 2 | 3 — —
What is your be-loved more than other be-loved,

3 2 | 3 6 6 3 | 4 — 4 3 2 3 | 4 — —
What is your be-loved more than other be-loved,

2 1 | 7 7 · 5 3 5 | 6 6 — 0 | 0 — — — |
O' fair - est one, that you so charge us?

3 3 5 6 1 2 | 3 3 —
My be - loved's dazz - ling and rud - dy,

3 | 6 · 3 2 1 3 | 2 2 —
Out - stand - ing a - mong ten thousand.

3 3 | 6 · 3 2 2 4 | 3 3 2 1
His head is the fin-est gold, pure gold;

2 1 | 7 7 1 3 2 1 7 | 6 6 ·
His locks are wa - vy, his locks are wa - vy,

5 3 5 | 6 6 — — |
Black as a ra - ven.

3 3 5 6 1 2 | 3 3 —
His eyes as doves by the ri - vers,

3 | 6 · 3 2 1 3 | 2 2 —
With milk they're washed and fit - ly set.

3 3 | 6 · 3 2 2 4 | 3 3 2 1 2 1 | 7
A bed of spices, banks of scented herbs are his cheeks.

7 1 3 2 1 7 | 6 6 · 5 3 5 | 6 6 — — |
His lips are like lilies, dripping li - quid myrrh.

3 3 5 5 | 3 3 2 2 |
His hands are like the rods of gold

1 1 2 2 | 7 — — — |
And set with be - ryl.

2 2 2 4 4 | 3 · 3 6 6 | 0
His bo - dy is as carved i - vo - ry,

7 1 3 2 7 1 | 6 — — 0
In - laid with sap - phi - res.

3 | 6 · 7 6 3 4 4 2 | 5 · 6 5 2 3 3
His legs, pillars of marble, set on bases of fine gold.

1 | 4 · 5 4 1 2 2 7 | 2 · 3 2 7 1 1
His bear-ing as Lebanon, ex - cell - ent as the cedars.

3 | 6 · 7 6 3 4 4 2 | 5 · 6 5 2 3 3
His mouth is full of sweetness, he's al - together lovely.

1 | 4 · 5 4 1 2 3 2 7 | 1 — 0
O' daugh - ters of Je - ru - sa - lem,

5 3 5 | 6 6 · 1 3 7 | 7 6 — — | 0 0 0
This is my beloved and this is my friend.

3 2 | 3 6 6 3 | 4 3 4 —
O' most beau - ti - ful a - mong wo-men,

2 1 | 2 5 5 3 4 | 3 — —
Where a - bout has your be-loved gone?

3 2 | 3 6 6 3 | 4 3 4 —
Where has your be-loved turned a - side?

2 1 | 7 7 · 5 3 5 | 6 6 —
We will seek him to - ge- ther with you,

2 1 | 2 2 2 2 3 4 | 3 — — ‖
We will seek him to- ge-ther with you.
