Dm 4/4

The Gethsemane

1 2 | 3 6 4 · 3 | 2 — —
O' my Lord, where should I start?

7 1 | 2 1 7 5 4 | 3 — —
Let me start from Gethsem - a - ne.

1 2 | 3 6 6 · 3 | 4 — —
The dis - ci - ples fell a - sleep;

2 1 | 7 7 6 #5 #5 1 | 6 — —
In the night, You were pray-ing a - lone

6 5 | 6 — — 4 3 | 4 — —
With loud cries and with tears.

2 2 | 5 5 · 2 3 4 | 3 — —
You were in fear, and un- der stress.

6 7 | 1 · 1 1 · 1 | 2 7 ·
You would be mocked and despised.

7 7 6 | 7 — 7 7 1 | 7 6 —
You'd be un - clothed and con - vic- ted.

4 5 | 6 — 6 6 | #5 6 7 — 2 1 | 3 — — — | 0
No one would give You a help-ing hand.

3 6 5 | 4 · 3 4 — | 0
Had You thought a - bout

2 5 4 | 3 · 2 3 — | 0
The pain of be - ing whipped

1 4 3 | 2 · #1 2 — | 0
And the a - go - ny

7 1 2 | 3 — — — | 0
Of be - ing pierced?

3 6 5 | 4 · 3 4 — | 0
I be - lieve You had.

2 5 4 | 3 · 2 3 — | 0
You knew well wood and nails.

1 4 3 | 2 · #1 2 — | 0
You were the son of

7 1 7 | 6 — — — | 0 0 0
A car - pen - ter.

#5 6 | 7 · 1 1 · 2 | 3 — —
Lord, I don't want You to die.

2 3 | 4 · 3 4 — | 0
Now I un - der - stand

7 1 2 2 3 4 | 3 — —
Why Pet - er held You back.

6 7 | 1 — 3 #5 6 | 7 — 7 #5 | 6 — — ‖
I can on - ly follow You to go forth.