O' God, may You o - pen my eyes.

4 · 4 4 5 6 · 6 5 4 | 3 — — — |
Let me see that You are with me,

4 4 3 2 4 | 3 6 #5 7 |
And Your arm-ies are tens of thousands;

7 · 7 2 i 7 | 6 — — — |
All things work for my good!

3 i 2 3 4 3 | 2 2 i 2 — |
I am al-ways the love in Your heart.

i · i 2 i 2 | 3 — — — |
What more shall I fear?

2 2 3 4 3 2 | 3 3 2 i — |
You are my gua- ran- tee and my strength.

7 7 i 2 i 7 | 6 — — — ‖
By You, I sing and re - joice.

2. O' God, may You open my eyes.
   Let me see that You are with me.
   I may walk through the valley of death.
   I will fear no evil.
   Your rod and Your staff they comfort me,
   What more shall I fear?
   Surely goodness, mercy shall follow me
   All the days of my life.
