F 4/4 No Hardship is Greater than the Lord

3 5 5 3 2 | 2 – 1 – |
What are you, O' great moun - tain?

6 1 1 1 6 | 5 – – – |
You shall be-come a plain!

6 1 1 1 | 2 – 1 – |
All the en - e - mies and

6 1 1 1 1 3 | 2 – – – |
Giants will become our food.

3 5 5 3 | 5 – – – |
There are storms and waves,

6 5 3 2 1 2 | 3 – – – |
But we'll rise a-bove them all.

6 1 1 1 6 | 5 – – – |
E - ven in a fur - nace,

6 1 1 1 2 | 1 – – – |
The Lord will walk with us.

3 5 5 3 | 2 – 1 – |
Is there an - y chal - lenge

6 · 1 1 6 | 5 – – – |
Great - er than the Lord?

6 1 1 1 | 2 — 1 — |
There's no sit - u - a - tion

3 · 2 1 3 | 2 — — — |
He can-not con - trol.

3 5 5 3 | 2 — 1 — |
Nor are there en - e - mies

6 · 1 1 6 | 5 — — — |
He can't make use of.

6 1 1 1 | 2 — 1 — |
Is there an - y weak - ness

3 · 2 1 2 | 1 — — — |
He can-not streng - then?

3 5 5 3 | 5 — — — |
There are storms and waves,

6 5 3 2 1 2 | 3 — — — |
But we'll rise a-bove them all.

6 1 1 1 6 | 5 — — — |
E - ven in a fur - nace,

6 1 1 1 2 | 1 — — — ‖
The Lord will walk with us.